EXPERIENCE

Independent Equity Research - Cincinnati, OH November 2025 – Present
Analyst
- Analyzed CPRT, AXP, PSH, AMZN, and PLTR on competitive strengths, pricing power, and use of capital, then used price-to-earnings ratios to judge whether each stock already priced in that strength.

Lawn Care Business - Cincinnati, OH 2021 – 2025
Founder and Owner
- Founded and independently ran a residential lawn-care business for four seasons, using environmentally sustainable practices and handling pricing, scheduling, and service to build a base of recurring clients.

ACTIVITIES

Independent Research - Bloomington, IN August 2026 – Present
Author, "A Random Walk Through Stochastic Asset Price Models: Breakdowns and a Non-Linear Barrier Jump Model"
- Tested Geometric Brownian Motion, Heston, Merton, Bates, and Variance Gamma stock-price models on ten years of daily S&P 500 data (2,519 days), finding that extreme moves occur far more often than the textbook model allows and that none captures how long turbulence lasts.
- Developed a barrier model in which crash risk rises as the S&P 500 approaches an economic barrier B; it scored best of six models on two of three standard fit measures, though the gain was modest.

Commentaries, Philosophical Essays- Cincinnati, OH December 2024 – Present
Author
- Wrote 14 essays drawing on more than 35 philosophical works, examining popular moral theories and concluding that moral action requires continuous self-improvement and reflection rather than fixed rules.

Financial Modeling Engine - Bloomington, IN August 2026 – Present
Founder and Developer
- Built a system that pulls SEC filings for any public company and automatically produces standardized financial statements, valuation metrics, and forecasts; tested on 137 randomly selected companies, it cut model-build time from hours to under 30 seconds.

Cincinnati Hills Christian Academy Golf - Cincinnati, OH 2022 – 2026
Varsity Golfer and Co-Captain
- Won the Middletown Christian Invitational; two-time First Team All-Miami Valley Conference.
